Being energetic and curious at the same time, I threw myself into developing the sales side of Vignobles Aubert as well as promoting the collective image of Saint-Emilion's wines in France and abroad.

I also share my passion for wine by participating in the « Les Arômes de Jeunesse » and « Les Mécréants » wine clubs. I also became a young « Jurât » (member of the Saint-Emilion wine fraternity) on the 16th September 2012.»

Yohan Aubert and his cousins Vanessa and Héloïse, are the heirs of Joseph Aubert, who founded this family of wine growers 250 years ago! Besides Château Couspaude, the Aubert family also possesses a range of wines in Lalande de Pomerol, Saint-Emilion Grand Cru, Montagne Saint-Emilion, Côtes de Castillon, Bordeaux and Bordeaux Supérieur.

Located in the heart of Saint-Emilion, near the monolithic church, this estate has been the flagship vineyard of the Aubert family for over a century.

«La Couspaude», written «La Croix Paute» in Middle-Age French, gets its name from the cross which still adorns the crossroads of lanes bordering the entrance to the property. This cross was a meeting point for pilgrims on their way to Saint Jacques of Compostella in Northern Spain. Château La Couspaude is equally remarkable by its underground cellar, which provides the ideal conditions for wine-making and ageing in barrels. The château also has a magnificent reception room used for prestigious events.

Château La Couspaude is a Saint Emilion Grand Cru Classé. Michel Rolland is the estate's wine production consultant. The château's vines are 30 years old on average and the vineyard is made up of 75% Merlot, 20% Cabernet Franc and 5% Cabernet Sauvignon.
